

HOTELS

17 Over-the-Top Ski Chalets

This winter, we're dreaming about high-altitude decadence courtesy of some of the world's most outrageously luxurious ski resorts. Jetsetter rounds up 17 OTT spots custom-designed for après-ski bliss.

By Chelsea Bengier, Emma Sloley Nov 29, 2016, 2:25 pm

- 1 The Little Nell, Aspen, CO
- 2 Baita 1697, Italy
- 3 Cheval Blanc Courchevel, France
- 4 Yellowstone Club, Montana
- 5 Chalet Le Coquelicot, France
- 6 Chalet N, Lech, Austria
- 7 The Lodge, Verbier, Switzerland
- 8 Whare Kea Chalet, New Zealand
- 9 Chalet Le Rocher, Val d'Isere, France
- 10 No. 14 Verbier, Switzerland
- 11 Amangani, Jackson, WY
- 12 Chalet One Oak, Combloux, France
- 13 Park Hyatt Beaver Creek, CO
- 14 Chalet Zermatt Peak, Zermatt, Switzerland
- 15 Viceroy, Snowmass, CO
- 16 Big Horn, Revelstoke, Canada
- 17 Stein Eriksen Lodge, Park City, Utah

4

Yellowstone Club, Montana

If you're looking for an exclusive, secluded getaway, this is it. Located 20 miles north of Yellowstone National Park, the members-only ski resort is a favorite among high-profile celebs and magnates like Ben Affleck, Bill Gates, and Justin Timberlake (which explains why the security is handled by former U.S. Secret Service Agents). But don't expect to come waltzing in without forking over some serious dough. Condos start at $6.5 million, plus there's the sign-up fee of $300,000, and let's not forget the $36,000 yearly dues. But it's worth the splurge when you get 2,200 acres of "private powder," (with three ski lodges and 15 chairlifts all to yourself) as well as an 18-hole Tom Weiskopf-designed golf course, private snowcat dinner excursions, and more.